CAUSEY BEATS GRIMES

Scores Seventh Straight Victory-Battle of Words Enlivens Contest.

By FREDERICK G. LIEB.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have a com-mendable percentage this spring, but judging from their first appearance of the year on the Polo Grounds yesterday they haven't changed much. Apparently they haven't changed much. Apparently they still can kick splendidly pitched es from under an unfortunate Ebets twirler with all the precision of the Trolley Dodgers of the era of "Whitey" Alperman, Dolly Stark, Coulson, Tooley and the old time Washington Park bunch.

For all the world yesterday's tiff in Harlem looked life a leaf from the diary of G. Napoleon Rucker some eight or nine years ago. Remember how George Napoleon, the great lefthander, used to come to Manhattan and hold the Glants to a handful of hits, only to have Stark, Tocley or some other fellow per the ball all over the grand stand?

Only yesterday it was Burleigh Grimes, e sensational young Brooklyn spitcaller, who was the victim of the Dodge strong arm boys. Burleigh let down the hard hitting Glants with five hits, the first one coming in the fifth inning, but asided and abetted by Ivy Olson and Lee Magee New York made one run for each hit. The Glants took the opening clash of the bit series of the mine him. of the big series of the spring by a score of 5 to 2. The defeat toppled the Dodgers into third place.

Causey's Seventh Victory.

It was the seventh straight game of It was the seventh straight game of the season for Red Caussy, the Florida bricktop, and enabled Cecil Algy to tie the high run of the year made by Jeff Pfeffer of Brooklyn, who won seven straight before the Cardinals stopped him ast Wednesday.

Causey gave another fine exhibition, tough in the third inning the Dodgers had him dangling on the rope and one more punch would have fetched Fred Toney into the picture. In that inning the Dodgers bunched four clean ringing singles, for two runs and had men on third and second when Causey got rid of Zack Wheat. That was the only frame in which the Dodgers kicked up much of a furore. Causey never has been de-feated by the Brooklyn team since he came into the National League.

Ivy Oison was up to all his old stunts.

Either he would make a grand stop in deep short or he would try to hit some inoffensive fan in a field box. And when Ivy makes a wild throw, believe us, they are wild! Twice he hurled far over big Konetchy's dome with Giant runners on the bages.

Olson also put on the old fight scene. Somehow or other we couldn't take it very seriously, being familiar with every move in the act. Olson got an infield single off Zimmerman's glove in the eighth, and Heinie, giving an imitation of Ivy, hurled past Chase, and Olson chase in clever style, made a fine re-covery and whipped the ball to Doyle, Quigley held him until he cooled off.

When Quigley let go his clutch Olson meandered back to the scene of the original excitement and spoke harshly to Doyle. But by this time it had become a real moh seene! All the Brooklyn centre. The score:

Philadelphia, May 29.—(American) a real mob scene! All the Brooklyn bench overran the field and McGraw came rushing in from the New York side, challenging Olson in his own be-half. But it was all "much ado about nothing," as there were no blows struck real war, and the New York contingent rode Olson hard for the rest of the Quigley really was in a delightful humor, and wouldn't let the boys fret him. In the sixth Zack Wheat stole second, at least "Quig" said he did. Fletcher didn't agree; he threw his hat. the ball and his glove into the ground with all his might and power. He threw the ball into the ground so hard that it bounced over cause, went to third on "a fit of wrath."

Usually such proceedings mean quick banishment, but Ernie merely turned his

Dodgers First to Score.

The Dodgers were the first to score, and gave Causey quite a tanning in the third. With one out, Krueger singled to left and took second when Grimes amashed another hot single to left. Olson kept it up by lining solidly to centre for a base, scoring Krueger. Magee went out on a lift to Burns, but Tommy Griffith also drove a smoking single to centre, Grimes scoring and Olson taking The song writer moved to second when Kauff pegged to Zim to get the Swede. Toney was warming up indus-triously, but was not needed. Causey got rid of Zack Wheat on a bounder to

But with the count two strikes and But with the count two strikes and only three balls on Gonzales, Kauff pulled the to-day. most brilliant play of the game when he made a clean steal of home, sliding right under Krueger. The play was made as Gonzales walked, but Causey grounded to Olson.

The Dodgers put on one of those Too-

That started Olson off, as he threw Chase's grounder far over Konetchy's head, Young scoring and Hal pulling up at second. Doyle walked and Zim sin-gled, the only hit of the inning, and Special Despatch to Tun Spr. each other in two drawn battles, the Huggins athletes finally scored a victory this afternoon in the tenth inning, the final count being 5 to 4 in favor of the visitors. In their previous encounters in New York the teams had played a twelve inning scoreless tie and a fifteen inning 4 to 4 tie. Thus thirty-seven innings were required before the Yankees showed their superiority. The defeat was the eighth in succession suffered by the Sen-

The game to-day was a nip and tuck affair and each team had a fair chance to win up to the time the last Senator was out in the tenth. Griffith's men tled up the score in the third inning and again in the ninth, but the run that Frank Baker's bat drove home in the tenth settled the dispute for Shawkey had opened the tenth inning with a strike out and Vick was out at first on a grounder to Shanks. Fewster first on a grounder to Shanks. Fewster then singled and stole second, after which Baker drove a single to right, second and failed. As the Senators were snuffed out in their half of the tenth the Yankees thus got the decision.

Russell pitched a fine brand of ball till the last half of the ninth frame, when he became unsteady and was benched in favor of Shawkey. The Yankees began scoring in the first session, collecting two runs at the out-set. With Vick out, Fewster was safe at aret on Shank's error, and galloped home on Baker's two bagger to left. Baker then stole third and scored on Lewis's sacrifice fly. Pipp reached first on Menoskey's error but was caught The Senators got a run in the first Training Quarters of Rivals Less Than Mile Apart.

Tolmo, Ohio. May 29.—The fact that training quarters for Jess Willard, who is scheduled to arrive here Saturday, were to-day located in a clubhouse on the shore of Maumee Bay, less than a mile from the Dempsey Camp, aroused comment from those accustomed to the ancient system of keeping matched boxers widely separated while in training.
